Program – Lisa Tomschiczek – Rotary Exchange Student

Following the playing of the German national anthem by David Kaplan, Philip Asea introduced Lisa Tomschiczek, our Rotary Exchange Student from Germany. Lisa comes from Bavaria, the largest of the 16 German states. Since Bavaria was an independent kingdom for many years, it has a unique and independent atmosphere. Its slogan is “laptops and lederhosen,” indicating its advanced business operations, along with its love of tradition. Lisa’s family lives in a small village 60 km south of the Bavarian capital of Munich. If you visit her village “you will hear our house,” as they have 14 parrots, several other birds, a dog and a turtle in their menagerie. Lisa’s parents run a specialty meat shop and restaurant where Lisa has helped since she was a little girl. Her grandfather, who lives nearby, is a well known German artist. He is inspired by the people and landscapes of Africa and of

Announcements

- Chary Rangacharyulu of the Riverside Club is looking for a host home for a university student from Bangkok during the month of May. Phone Chary if you can help.
- Kim Horan – The thoughts of Rotarians everywhere are focused on the plight of Julie Ann Mulligan, a Rotarian from Drayton Valley, Alberta, who was kidnapped while leading a Group Study Exchange Team in Nigeria.
- Ed Pek – The Meewasin Club’s annual Rotary Lobster Fest will be held on Saturday, May 23 at the Soccer Centre at 219 Primrose Drive. Reception at 6 p.m., with dinner to start at 6:30 p.m. Cost is $50, with a charitable receipt for $25. For tickets, contact Ed Pek.

Sergeant-at-Arms

Sergeant Joe Dierker fined himself for having to miss a Meals on Wheels date, plus Norm Woodcock and Eileen Harvey for having the privilege of filling in for him. We all failed miserably on Joe’s questions about the Rotarian magazine. Happy and sad dollars of note came from Harold Chapman (trip to Costa Rica), Keith Downey (visit with kids and grandkids in Calgary), Cy Rouse (glad to be back), Walter Mills (New York granddaughter coming to visit again), Gary Schlichemeyer (daughter engaged), Lorne Braithwaite (weekend in Regina), and Jack Scott (hasn’t played golf yet).
